Information for non-majors interested in the School of Tourism and Hospitality Management (STHM)

Non-major students can proceed with any of the five courses below:

STHM 0827 DIMENSIONS OF DIVERSITY: WHAT’S BREWING IN THE MELTING POT?
(3-credits) | consult with an STHM Academic Advisor about when this course is offered | Fulfills the General Education Diversity and Race (GD) requirement

STHM 0857 SPORT AND LEISURE IN AMERICAN SOCIETY
(3-credits) | consult with an STHM Academic Advisor about when this course is offered | Fulfills the General Education U.S. Society (GU) requirement

STHM 1113 FOUNDATIONS OF LEISURE
(4-credits) | offered in the fall and spring semesters

Also, please note the following:

- A request to proceed with a STHM course outside of the five listed above will not be supported by STHM Administration, Faculty, or Staff.

- Non-major students with a senior status at the university are not allowed to proceed with any of the five courses highlighted above.

- Non-major students may register for more than one of the five courses simultaneously in a semester.

- STHM students will take precedence over non-major students with regard to STHM 1113, 1211, and 1311 in reference to the number of available seats.

- Students who elect to proceed with STHM 0827 and/or 0857 should consult with an STHM Academic Advisor in reference to the course(s) applicability to the curriculum.