

Study Abroad Program Guide for SCHOOL of TOURISM and HOSPITALITY STUDENTS

With so many study abroad programs, finding a program that's the right fit can seem overwhelming. Although this guide is not exhaustive, it is designed to provide you, an STHM student, with an overview of some of your options. As you will see, knowing the types of courses that are best for you to take abroad is important when determining your options, so meeting with your academic advisor is a key step early on in the process (more on that below). But first, here are some options.

	TEMPLE PROGRAM OPTIONS	EXTERNAL PROGRAM OPTIONS You can participate in programs organized by other U.S. universities, or you can apply directly to an institution overseas. The Education Abroad resource library has information on other schools' programs, and our advisors can direct you to additional resources. To participate in an external program/direct enroll, you must complete Temple's External Program approval process.
I plan to take at least some major courses while abroad.	STHM courses are not typically offered on Temple programs, but the following programs will allow you to fulfill your business requirements. Temple University Rome In the summer, Temple Rome typically offers two business courses, which vary from year to year. I would like to fulfill GenEd requirements while abroad.	By successfully completing a Temple study abroad program, you will automatically fulfill the GenEd World Society requirement. In addition, Temple Rome offers one course that fulfills the GenEd Arts requirement, and Temple Japan offers a few GenEd courses each semester.	By successfully completing an approved external study abroad program, you will automatically fulfill the GenEd World Society requirement. Some appropriate external program courses may fulfill GenEd requirements.
